

1660

31 December

there drank a pot or two, and so parted – my boy taking a catt home with him from my Lord's, which Sarah hath given him for my wife, we being much troubled with mice.