

Chronological Summary

- 1715 Will Hewer, his executor, dies
- 1723 John Jackson, his nephew and heir, dies
- 1724 July: His library moved from Clapham to Magdalene College, Cambridge
- 1766 His account of the King's escape after the Battle of Worcester first published by Sir David Dalrymple
- 1825 His diary first published (in heavily abbreviated form) by Lord Braybrooke from the transcription by John Smith
- 1841 His Tangier Journal first published by John Smith
- 1884 His monument erected in St Olave's
- 1983 His statue erected in Seething Lane